

Declaration of consent for recording and publication of your presentation

The Frankfurt Institute for Advanced Studies (FIAS) wishes to record, live-stream, and re-publish your presentation given within the framework of the Open Energy Modelling Initiative Workshop (April 19 to 21, 2017). This necessitates your declaration of consent for recording and aforementioned distribution via FIAS's web site and/or other electronic media. At registration you gave consent for being recorded as part of the audience.

We now request to consider and confirm that recording and publishing of your presentation is not in conflict with your personal wishes or any legal obligation you might have regarding its content, including copyright restrictions, non-disclosure agreements, or other publishing restrictions.

For this purpose, if you agree with the terms, we would like to ask you to return a completed and signed copy of this page to the following e-mail address or fax number:

Declaration of consent for use and publication of video, audio, and still image recordings made within the framework of the "Open Energy Modelling Initiative Workshop":

I agree that video, audio, and still image recordings of my presentation are used at no charge by FIAS for aforementioned purposes without any restriction in terms of time, space, and content. I hereby grant FIAS the relevant rights regarding distribution, reproduction, processing, editing, and archiving by means of any transmission, reproduction, and storage technology.

This declaration of consent can be revoked at any time for future effect.

We would like to point out that recordings can be accessed worldwide once published.

All recordings will be released under a Creative Commons BY 4.0 licence (see <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/> for the terms of the licence).

Consequently, further use of the material by third parties cannot be prevented.
